THE LITTLE FELLOW WHO! COULD NEVER SPEAK A PIECE IN SCHOOL ?

AUQU

Eight men who had been employed at intervals of two hours at a time, to wind the clock in city hall tower, are hunting less strenuous work. The Board of Public Works decided it was too hard on the men, so they installed a motor

Before Breakfast-15 Drinks.

One hundred drinks a day—ordinary days—and on holidays and ther special days more. That's John B. Graham's record as stated in tastimony he gave in a suit he gave here recently. He usually had about 15 drinks before breakfast and his average bill for liquor was around $450 a month for 1915 and 1948 ha said.

Saicide Among the Goats.

Freedom-loving goats of the alasks mountains prefer death to capture, and it pressed too closely will jump over precipices and end their lives, according to hunters.

Did You Know?

When the bills come in to the "aid man" on the first of the month they came in on a string of that cars and looked something like circus garade.

Teeth and claws were used for currency, therefore a jellyfish wasn't considered very valuable as a money factor.
